Elmer's Web Safety Poem

I have a special secret
whenever I'm online.
I don't tell others about the things that really are just mine.
My e-mail and my home address,
my phone number and name,
these are just for me to know when chatting or playing games.

Instead, I use my nonsense name,
It's my online identity!
When people ask me who I am,
I introduce my "cyber-me."
And when I want to surf the Web,
to visit places that are cool,
I get some help from mom or dad,
or teachers from my school.
